Common questions with answers

How many birds should I reserve? Determine the amount of birds you think you might use in the upcoming season and reserve 80% of that amount. This gives you a good buffer.

What happens to my deposit? $3.00 deposit credit per bird will be given with each of your purchases until you have met your reservation.

Can I purchase more birds after my reservation is fulfilled? Yes, if available and at non-reservation pricing.

What if I am unable to use the birds I reserve? Give us sufficient notice and we will try to sell your birds for you. In the event that we are able to sell all of them for you, your deposit may be returned. Your deposit per bird will be forfeited if we do not receive sufficient notice or are unable to sell your birds.

How much notice do I need to give to pick up my birds? A minimum of 24 hours is needed.

Do I need my own crates? Yes, anyone having to use ours will be charged a $50 deposit per crate until you return them to us.

What is the last date to purchase and get my birds by? All reserved birds must be purchased and picked up between Sept 1, 2015 and March 31, 2016. The month of April is our prep month for the next season.

Do you guarantee birds once they leave the farm? NO, we are not responsible for anything once birds are in your possession.

Do you deliver? Yes $1.25 per mile round trip. For the tri-state. All other states e-mail deckerfarms@etczone.com for a quote.
